

Key Stage 1

These are our rules for using the Internet safely.

Our Internet Rules

- We use the Internet safely to help us learn.
- We learn how to use the Internet.
- We can send and open messages with an adult.
- We can write polite and friendly e-mails and blog messages to people that we know.
- We only tell people our first name.
- We learn to keep our password a secret.
- We know who to ask for help.
- If we see something we do not like we know what to do- tell a grown up straight away!
- We know that it is important to follow the rules.
- We are able to look after each other by using our safe Internet.
- We can go to www.thinkuknow.co.uk for help.

Key Stage 2

These are our rules for using the internet safely and responsibly.

Our Internet Rules

- We use the Internet to help us learn and we will learn how to use the Internet safely and responsibly.
- We send e-mails and blog messages that are polite and friendly. Only say something you would say to somebody's face.
- We will only e-mail, chat to or Skype people an adult has approved.
- Adults are aware when we use on-line tools, such as Skyping, Zooming and blogging.
- We never give out passwords or personal information (like our surname, address or phone number).
- We never post photographs or video clips without permission and never include names with photographs.
- If we see anything on the Internet or in an e-mail that makes us uncomfortable, we know what to do.
- If we receive a message sent by someone we don't know we know what to do- tell a grown up immediately!
- We know we should follow the rules as part of the agreement with our parent/carer.
- We are able to look after each other by using our safe Internet in a responsible way.
- We know that we can go to www.thinkuknow.co.uk for help.
- We shall not use, or attempt to use, social media such as Facebook or Instagram.
